

First Grade Summer Reading Project

Over the summer, students will be reading and writing a book report on two stories.

Students must read the book, “First Grade, Here I Come” by Nancy Carlson and fill out the book report attached.

In addition, students are asked to pick one book from below to read and fill out a second book report, also attached.

1. Any book from the “Henry and Mudge” Series by Cynthia Rylant
2. “If You Give a Mouse a Cookie” by Laura Joffe Numeroff
3. “Rainbow Fish” by Marcus Pfister
4. “The Boy Who Loved Words” by Roni Schotter
5. “Big Bug Surprise” by Julia Gran
6. “The New Girl and Me” by Jacqui Robbins
7. “Dad, Jackie, and Me” by Myron Uhlberg
8. “Emily’s First 100 Days of School” by Rosemary Wells
9. “My Best Friend” by Pat Hutchins
10. “How the Elephant Got Its Trunk” by Jean Richards

Students are encouraged to color their pictures on the back of the report in crayon only. Please read these stories with your child to create fun summer memories and make reading even more fun for them. Happy reading!

Extra Preparation for First Grade

Helpful websites for fun summer practice: IXL.com, abcya.com, Funbrain.com

Skills to practice: writing full name, capital and lowercase letters, addition and subtraction facts for numbers 0-10, reading aloud and understanding stories

Summer is a wonderful time for relaxing, but also continuing learning. The more each child practices over the summer, the more prepared they will be to be first graders!
